2004 ICC December Banquet

It's official! Our banquet this year will be held at HomeTown Buffet in Southern Plaza. The time and date are 6:00pm on Monday, December 6th. I told them that we would have 30 people in attendance. If we have 30 people, we are guaranteed to have the whole room to ourselves. If we have less than 30 we may have to share. Hopefully no one else tries to reserve the room too. I will know more in the next few months.

I need to figure out what kind of program we should have at the banquet. In the past few years we have had entertainers (magician, harpist, etc.) and speakers (Jay Kline, etc.). If anyone has any ideas, please tell me at the meeting. I will have to talk to HomeTown Buffet to see what kind of entertainment or speakers they allow, if they allow them.

President Dove called the meeting to order by welcoming guests and announcing that this meeting is Ladies Night. Present for Ladies Night were Melissa Miller, Ruth Alber, Susan Ferwerda, Sherry Goaziou, Shirley Daniell, Amy Eberhardt and Pat Dove.

The Treasurer's report was read, which included a statement of the Club's financial position as of the meeting date, followed by the Secretary's Report. Both were accepted as presented.

Anthony Mentz and Donn Wray are new members. Allen Dove reported that he is making arrangements for the year-end Banquet. It was announced that the Summer Picnic has been canceled. Coz Raimondi reported that no dates have yet been established for an ISNA Coin Show.

The educational program was presented by Vinton Dove covering the Susan B. Anthony Dollar Coin and some history about the contributions of Susan B. Anthony as a suffragette.

Lyle Pelkin won the 50/50 drawing.

Coin Index donated an Indiana Quarter with quarters to each lady guest and the Club gave a new Florida "P" statehood quarter to each person present. 36 persons were in attendance.

A dealer bourse was manned by four dealers and an auction was called by Lou Coppinger, assisted by Dave Reid and Karl Kreck. The meeting was adjourned by President Dove at 8:40 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. Goaziou, Secretary
